

Exhibit A

ROOPAL P. LUHANA

Roopal P. Luhana is a Founding Partner of Chaffin Luhana LLP. Ms. Luhana's parents migrated their family from India to the United States when Ms. Luhana was five to give their children a better life. They instilled a strong sense of compassion, work ethic, and drive in her from an early age. Those values shape Ms. Luhana's practice of law every day. Since joining the private sector, Ms. Luhana has focused on representing injured victims in mass tort, product liability, and catastrophic personal injury litigation. In 2010, Ms. Luhana co-founded her firm as a national plaintiffs-only law firm with Partner Eric Chaffin.

Ms. Luhana manages the firm's mass torts division. Over the course of her career, she has served on committees in MDLs involving over-the-counter consumer products and defective pharmaceuticals and medical devices.

Most recently, Ms. Luhana was appointed to leadership in the In Re: Camp LeJeune Water Litigation (E.D.N.C.) as part of the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee. She is currently serving on the Science and Experts Subcommittee that lies at the core of the litigation and is responsible for working with Plaintiffs' experts.

Ms. Luhana was also appointed by U.S. District Judge Nancy Rosenstengel in the In re: Paraquat Products Liability Litigation (S.D.Ill.) to the Plaintiffs' Executive Committee (PEC).

In 2020, Ms. Luhana was appointed by U.S. District Judge Robin L. Rosenberg to the Plaintiffs' Executive Committee (PEC) in the In re: Zantac (Ranitidine) Products Liability Litigation (S.D.FL.). Ms. Luhana was also one of six Chairs named in the Zantac MDL (ESI/Document Production Committee) and was one of 13 women named to leadership in the litigation.

In addition, Ms. Luhana previously served as one of only two court-appointed women on the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee in the In Re: Yasmin and Yaz (Drospirenone) Marketing, Sales Practices and Products Liability Litigation (S.D.Ill.). Ms. Luhana further worked closely with the firm's female clients and co-counsel on transvaginal mesh injury cases, including those that involved the Bard Avaulta Mesh, Mentor Sling, and the Gynecare Prolift.

Further, Ms. Luhana served on the Plaintiffs' Executive Committee in In re: Sorin 3T Heater-Cooler System Prods. Liab. Litig. (No. II), MDL No. 2816, which was largely resolved (in record time). She was also extensively involved in the denture cream litigation in federal and state courts and served as the Chair of the Law & Briefing Committee in the federal Denture Cream MDL.

FIRM PROFILE

Chaffin Luhana LLP is a plaintiffs-only law firm with a national trial practice focused on representing injured victims in complex cases.

With over 200 years of experience and over $1 billion recovered by our attorneys, our hard-working team includes former federal and state prosecutors, former state and federal judicial law clerks, former large defense firm attorneys, court-appointed leaders in the national plaintiffs' bar and an on-staff social worker.

We have extensive experience that is nationally recognized, and we have achieved extraordinary results for our clients in the area of pharmaceutical and medical device litigation, product liability litigation and significant personal injury litigation in state and federal courts across the country.

Our overarching value is "Doing Good by Doing Right."™ Every Day. In Everything We Do." Through the Chaffin Luhana Foundation, which is funded with a portion of the profits from the firm, we carry out this mission in the communities where we practice. Through the Foundation, we have donated to dozens of charities, advanced scientific research of toxic exposure to zinc, worked to combat distracted driving, and provided scholarships to college to many high school students.
